PRESS RELEASE

ALPHA CHI OMEGA TAPS ALUMNAE FOR 2017 GLOBAL SERVICE INITIATIVE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

INDIANAPOLIS, March 7, 2017 – Alpha Chi Omega has selected nine members for its alumnae Global Service Initiative trip.

Now in its second year, the alumnae Global Service Initiative integrates travel, service and cultural immersion, and connects those experiences with Alpha Chi Omega principles and values. This year, the group will travel to Woodstock, Virginia, April 20-23, where they will serve at Response, Inc., a domestic violence shelter that provides services to women and children across the Shenandoah Valley. Trip participants will also have the opportunity to connect with local Alpha Chi Omega sisters in the area at an alumnae dinner hosted in Woodstock on Saturday, April 22.

This year's participants include:

Chris Bush – Theta, University of Michigan
Andrea Gibson – Zeta Omega, Western Carolina University
Anita Grant – Epsilon Lambda, University of Texas - Arlington
Shirley LeForge – Delta Theta, University of Maine
Stephanie Sibley – Gamma Nu, San Diego State University
Carly Sivillo – Beta Omega, University of Toledo
Allyson Vander Broek – Delta Sigma, University of the Pacific
Lauren Wake – Beta Nu, University of Utah
Micah Woodul – Alpha Gamma, University of New Mexico

Follow along with their adventures by following the Starting Conversations blog on alphachiomega.org. To learn more about the alumnae Global Service Initiative, contact Alpha Chi Omega Director of Lifetime Engagement Kristyn Tomlinson.

About Alpha Chi Omega

Alpha Chi Omega is a values-driven women's fraternity founded in 1885. As a nonprofit organization, it supports more than 200,000 living members in 143 college chapters and 193 alumnae chapters across the United States. The Fraternity is far more than a social organization, more than a place to live, or a way to meet people. Its mission is to enrich the lives of members through lifetime opportunities for friendship, leadership, learning and service.
