2027-28 National Nominating Committee Collegiate Member Position Description

INFORMATION

The Alpha Chi Omega 2026-28 National Nominating Committee (NNC) is seeking applicants for the position of collegiate member and collegiate alternate member. The collegiate member and collegiate alternate member, both of whom must be members in good standing with the Fraternity at the time of their selection, will serve a one-year term beginning August 1, 2027. Both the collegiate member and collegiate alternate member must sign an oath of confidentiality and will have participation rights and responsibilities in all meetings of the NNC throughout the term, with the collegiate member also having the right to vote. A vacancy in the collegiate member position will be filled by the collegiate alternate member. Meetings are held by conference call, on an average of twice per month from August through December. One onsite weekend meeting is held at national headquarters in Indianapolis, Indiana, in spring 2027, with travel expenses paid by the Fraternity.

BENEFITS OF SERVICE

- Playing a leadership role in the National Council officer nomination process
- Having input into the future of Alpha Chi Omega leadership
- Interacting with Fraternity leaders
- Ensuring collegiate needs and opinions are represented in the National Council nomination process
