

NOW ACCEPTING NOMINATIONS FOR THE NATIONAL HOUSING CORPORATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The National Housing Corporation (NHC) enhances the Real. Strong. Women. Experience by providing safe and competitive facilities where members connect, lead, grow and serve.

The all-volunteer NHC Board of Directors provides the strategic vision for the NHC to accomplish this mission and contribute to the overall success of the Alpha Chi Omega Enterprise. The Board is comprised of seven directors: one National Council representative and six directors elected by the National Council to serve a two-year term.

DIRECTOR RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE:

- Providing strategic direction and financial oversight to the NHC to further its mission
- Being informed of the requirements of the Indiana Nonprofit Corporation Act; the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Alpha Chi Omega National Housing Corporation; and the mission, values and policies of the NHC
- Overseeing the management of the NHC's finances, legal exposure and obligations
- Being involved in board development, organizational development, policy development and resource development
- Staying informed about the activities of the NHC and general housing trends in the field of collegiate-based fraternal organizations
- Attending board meetings regularly, serving on committees of the board as needed and contributing to the work of the board
- Maintaining confidentiality
- Being an annual donor to the Foundation as a Leadership Circle member each fiscal year during the time of service

NOMINATIONS

Interested individuals should submit their resume and letter of interest electronically to bcarson@alphachiomega.org or mail it to headquarters. Members reflecting the diversity of the Alpha Chi Omega membership are specifically encouraged to apply. Candidates are screened for their professional experience and expertise in the areas of real estate, property oversight, property management, legal, finance and board governance.
