

Alpha Chi Omega Women's Fraternity to Continue Partnership With Billhighway

Billhighway and Alpha Chi Omega have been partners since 2010

TROY, MICH. - November 6, 2018 - Billhighway, who provides an industry-leading cloud-based financial management platform, and Alpha Chi Omega will renew their service contract. Alpha Chi Omega will continue using the Billhighway system to manage the finances of its chapters so members can focus on its mission.

“Billhighway is a long-time Alpha Chi Omega partner, enabling the financial success of all 143 of our collegiate chapters,” said Katie Gaffin, chief executive officer at Alpha Chi Omega. “Billhighway does more than provide a financial management system; it is a committed, collaborative partner that looks for ways to help our organization improve and succeed.”

Alpha Chi Omega implemented the Billhighway platform in 2010, and both organizations look forward to further strengthening their partnership over the coming years. Billhighway is proud to have a customer loyalty rate of 96% and is thankful for each of its client organization partners.

“Alpha Chi Omega has achieved tremendous growth over the course of our partnership, and their team is always a pleasure to work with,” said Tom Bomberski, president at Billhighway. “Our team is very excited to continue our partnership and work together towards achieving their organizational goals. Through our expanded commitment to the fraternal industry, we look forward to delivering greater opportunities and results to Alpha Chi Omega and all our clients.”
