

JOB TITLE: Staff Accountant
ENTITY: National Housing Corporation
DEPARTMENT: Finance
REPORTS TO: Assistant Controller
EFFECTIVE DATE: March 2023
JOB LOCATION: Headquarters or Remote

JOB SUMMARY

The staff accountant is responsible for creating and posting journal entries (including significant fixed asset, accrual, cash and debt activity), preparing reconciliations of general ledger balances to supporting documents (some reconciliations are very detailed and complex with a high volume of transactions), analyzing general ledger balances and filing property tax returns for many locations. Additionally, the staff accountant prepares monthly reports and schedules for management, prepares schedules related to annual budgets and audits and supports the assistant controller and senior financial controller in preparing other financial analyses.

Many of the National Housing Corporation's policies, procedures and processes are specific to Alpha Chi Omega and require significant learning on the part of the staff accountant. Important success factors in the role include:

- Initiative, curiosity and a self-directed learning style
- Customer-service focus (key customers are housing team members)
- Willingness to learn/support/explain internal (non-GAAP) accounting requirements in addition to GAAP reporting
- Strong ability to explain accounting information to non-accountants in a way that is clear and understandable
- Open and transparent communication with supervisor and housing team colleagues regarding status on assigned work, issues encountered and availability for additional work
- High energy, fast paced work style
- Team orientation – willingness to help team members whenever and however possible
