“Alpha Chi has given me so much over the past three years, from my closest friends to inspiring mentors to personal development to leadership growth. And now it has also given me the financial support to worry less about my financial situation and put more focus on learning, growing and enjoying my last year as a collegian. To have someone who doesn’t even know me give their money to support me is inspirational.”

— Katie Edwards (AX, Butler University, Alpha Chi Chapter Scholarship)
“Alpha Chi Omega Foundation scholarship support is single-handedly the reason I’ve been able to make it this far in my academic career. There were times I might have had to drop out, but the Foundation scholarship program was there to help me make ends meet with my tuition bills.”

—Rachel Hanebutt (A, DePauw University, Jody Bayer Martindill Scholarship and Alpha Chi Omega Scholars Fund)
“I am honored to be one of the recipients of the Miriam Decker Scholarship this year, and deeply grateful for the generosity of this scholarship that will allow me to continue pursuing medicine...As I progress through medical school and the remainder of my medical training, the qualities that Alpha Chi Omega cultivated in me will allow me to be a more confident and compassionate physician.”

— Kelsey Montgomery (ΙΣ, Southern Methodist University, Miriam Decker Scholarship)
“This gift is helping me realize a lifelong dream of earning my doctorate in higher education administration. I plan to dedicate my life to helping increase access to higher education to anyone who seeks to further their education. I would not be who I am without the influence of Alpha Chi Omega and the opportunities it presented to me.”

— Leslie Prideaux (Σ, University of Iowa, Ellen Schalk-Feild Memorial Scholarship)
"As a rising senior at the University of West Florida, your contribution will help me complete my last year studying global marketing. As the president of Kappa Xi, I cannot begin to express the limitless ways Alpha Chi Omega has shaped my future."

— Kristina Rose Summerlin (ΚΞ, University of West Florida, Alpha Chi Omega Scholars Fund)
